REGIONAL LABOUR INSTITUTE, KANPUR

About DGFASLI & Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur

DGFASLI is an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. It also advises factories on various problems concerning safety, health, efficiency and well - being of the persons at work places. Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur is one of the oldest institutes in India under DGFASLI, Govt. of India, for teaching, training and consultancy in the field of occupational safety and health. It has been functioning since 1963.

Background

Workplace hazards have a great potential to cause on-the-job injuries, illnesses, or even death at the workplace. Every management of an industry is always taking best of their efforts to prevent accidents / incidents within their premises. In spite of these due to rapid advances in industrial processes, newer types of dangers to life, limb and health are increasing day by day. Due to rapid industrialisation Mechanical, Electrical, Chemical and Radiation hazards are increased. Every year, several lakhs of employees are injured in factories due to accidents. Many more are disabled for life. Besides, the heavy costs due to accidents, it is a serious reflection on the standard of overall efficiency of those organizations where the accident rate persists at a high level. In this context “Accident Prevention Programme” plays very vital role to enhance overall safety performance of any industry.
